

Area Leadership Conference Policy for Advisor Attendance

The annual Area Leadership Conference (ALC) is designed to allow the Area XII Officers to focus on training the District Officers for their role as leaders within their respective Districts for the upcoming school year. ALC will be held in the early summer following the State Leadership Conference (SLC) which is required for all Area FFA Officers to attend.

Female and male advisors will be required to attend to represent their district officer team dynamics. The advisors will also supervise the conduct and participation of their respective District Officers in order to maximize the benefits of the leadership development training.

The gender of the District officers will determine which advisors will be required to attend. There must be 1 female and 1 male advisor from each District for the dorms/cabins that will be used. Their role in the dorms/cabins will be supervisory. The advisors will monitor and enforce the conference rules and assist the Area Officers in maintaining appropriate behavior, including lights-out times, waking times, cleanup duties and other duties as assigned. Advisors will attend the entire ALC and stay the night(s) in the dorms/cabins.

Advisors in attendance will assist with multiple tasks to help operate the ALC and supervise the students including meal preparation, assistance with managing the conference schedule, minor medical attention (cuts and bruises) and attention to any special dietary concerns of those attending the ALC. Advisors will assist district officer team with preparation of the workshops for District Leadership Conference.

The following advisor positions will be filled for ALC from each District in Area XII.

- District Leadership Coordinator- attend as the person responsible for the district officers team at conferences.
- District Advisor –attend as an additional chaperon for the district officer team.
- Must be 1 male and 1 female representative from your district.
- District will be responsible for covering the cost of the District Leadership Coordinator and District Advisor.
- Other advisors may attend the conference at the cost of the conference.
